

PaperCut

My name is Rafael Shade I am 22 years old, nearly 23. My place of birth is New York but now I live in San Diego in California because my dad is the lead guitarist in ACDC (the rock band) and they live over in California so there was no point of flying to California and back!

I thoroughly enjoy ACDC concerts, they are outstanding. I go to nearly every single concert now. I live with my dad and my mum, my brother and sister live over in London as they are in a band there called Flame Stone. I love my pets, they are so adorable, I have a tortoise called Bubbles, he is 5 years old and a dog called Dusty, he is 7 years old (49 in dog years). In addition to this, I have a lizard called Lenny, a turtle called Tina and a cat called Celia.

Obviously I like ACDC music, also I play soccer just for fun and I play the guitar practically everyday when I arrive home from college straight away. I go to soccer at least once a week. I would love to be bigger rock legend than my dad plus to be extremely popular for my personality as well as my musical abilities.

I currently have a band called 'Papercut' from Los Angeles, California. In my band there are another three people, they are Ricardo Lopez, Evie Ramheart and Jennifer Heart. I met them at an ACDC concert in Hawaii. We met as single artists but we formed as a band when we all jammed together.

My hopes for the band are to be extremely famous rock legends. We worked as hard as we can so it will maybe happen!
