Interview of Evie Ramheart of Papercut - by Emma Alexander

EA

Hello Evie!

ER

Hello Emma

EA

I think we will start at the beginning. When did you first become interested in music?

ER

I suppose it was when I was four. You see my parents died when I was very young, and my sister Leigh and I went to live with our Grandfather, Alex Harvey. He loved rock music, and he was a rock legend himself in his day. I guess that's where I get my inner rock.

EA

I see. When did you receive your first instrument?

ER

When I was four, my grandfather bought me my first drum kit.

EA

When you were young what artists inspired you?

ER

ACDC and the the Rolling Stones.

EA

I'm interested to know, Evie, did you have a career in music before you met the band?

ER

Not really, although I always wanted to start one.

EA

Which brings us to you, how did you meet your band?

ER

Well thats a long story Emma! Basically Rafeal Shades father is the lead guitarist of ACDC. We all turned up for his concert and he told us that his son, Rafeal, was holding auditions. We all went in for them and that's how Papercut was born.

EA

What genre of music does Papercut play?

ER

Sort of Rock/Pop.

EA

What is the name of the first single your band released?

ER

Just Be Yourself

EA

What's the message behind that?

ER

It's about encouraging people to stay true to themselves and not to give up.

EA

Evie, I'm inspired.

ER

Why, thank you Emma!

EA

I don't know if you are aware, but I have been hearing from your listeners about your exceptional singing talent. What would you say to your fans?

ER

I'd thank them for supporting me and being with me all the way.

EA

Last of all what are your hopes for your bands future?

ER

That our next song will be a success, and we will become rock legends.

EA

Thank you Evie, it's been a pleasure meeting you.

ER

[7] You're welcome. Good evening.
