

My name is Dax Carmine and I play bass guitar in a band called Riot! I am 25 years old and I live in Auckland, New Zealand. I originally come from Toronto in Canada but left there to live with my dad who is a millionaire as he won the lottery and asked me to come and stay with him.

In my spare time I like to practice my bass guitar and hang about in dark corners. I also like to listen to Green day, Eminem and Queen on my I-pod shuffle.

Our band met at Auckland School of Art where I was studying music. I moved into a flat by the beach and changed it into nothing but my own gothic style.

One day I was practicing my bass and heard Eva singing in the shower. She had a pure amazing voice and so I knocked on the door and introduced myself. The rest is history! We've been friends now for 2 years.

In the future I want RIOT! to not suck as much as the other bands I have been in as they have been rubbish.

RIOT! rocks MAN! ABSOLUTELY RADICALL!

We will have a number 1 single before the year is out.
